

Dance Music - The Best Party Ever

The following is the dance mix I played at my last party (Dec 2009). You'll want to start your dance mix with your strongest songs to get people out on the floor. I had to start this party off with a Michael Jackson song - it killed. I also added two new songs right at the beginning that really worked. I got the best reaction yet from this years mix. Keep in mind that these songs work for my crowd. They may not necessarily work for yours. I have been working for twenty years on the perfect mix to give my guests. What I do to listen to a new song is go to Youtube and watch the video. If I really like the song I add it.
